“Just Getting”

*Now that I'm getting older
it's true that I'm getting bolder.
But what exactly does that entail,
when I'm moving like a snail?*

*As the season gets colder,
I move so much slower.
My projects take days longer,
and I definitely don't get any stronger.*

*Getting past the busy summer,
prepares me for winter's slumber.
But before I know it,
another year's here . . . and I show it.*
